cleanse the surface of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment (50c.) freely, to aliay itching, irritation and inflammation and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take Cuticura Resolvent (50c.) to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set (price, $1.26) is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring and humilating skin, scalp and blood humors, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

This were and wholesone treatment offends instant sales not the scale of the sales and the sales of the sales and solve the sales and solve and and solve and solve and sales and solve and sales and solve and solve

This sweet and wholesome treatment affords instant relief, p mits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other its ing, burning, and scaly humors of the skin, scalp, and blood, and poin to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure when other remedi-fail.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scald head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of wornout parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura remedies are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humor remedies of the civilized world.

STATUTES IN THE SEA.

DIVERS MAKE FINDS OF ART TRESAURES NEAR CAPE MALEA.

Says an Athens, Italy, cable: Ther are some splendid bronze statutes at cian government does not speedily take steps to secure them it is very ist or company will be able to acquire them for a comparatively small sum.

Divers were at work recently between Cerigo and Cape Malea, and as they were exploring the depths of the water they suddenly came acro eral large bronze statutes. They lay on the sea bottom here and there, unbroken and apparently flawless as on the day when they were first fash ioned. The divers examined them and was that they had found a remarkable

The wigwam is built by imbedding flexible but sul stantial poles in the ground in rectangular shapes, binding them and joining them at the center. For covering, fine bark is mostly used. The bark is taken from the largest trees and is stitched together in long rolls, whose edges are strengthened by a binding of siender withes. The rolls are drawn tightly around the skeleton of poles, the upper overlapping the lower to make them perfectly watertight. The rolls do not completely cover the of the wigwam, an opening being left in the center as a smoke escape. There is but one other opening, a door, and over this hangs a mat which covers
